TALK OF THE TOWN

Special values in ladies' tailored suits at Abbott's.

E. W. Magnus, who has been spending a few days with friends in the city, returned last evening to Waterbury, where he is employed by the Waterbury Telephone Co.

Principal O. D. Mathewson of Lyndon institute, Lyndon, Mrs. Mathewson and their three children, two daughters and a son, were Thanksgiving day visitors in the city.

Miss Julia DeForge of St. Johnsbury and Edna K. Aris spent Thanksgiving at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Kimball of Maple avenue.

Adoption and warrior degrees were conferred on eight candidates at a meeting of the Iroquois tribe, No. 16, I. O. R. M., on a recent evening, the occasion being a reunion of Red Men affiliated with the local tribe, Wuchosen tribe in East Barre and Sioux tribe in Montpelier. Seven candidates received the warrior's degree and upon one the Iroquois tribesmen conferred the adoption degree. Following the ceremonial there was a program of informal speechmaking and musical selections. Among those who were called upon were: Thomas McDonald, Alex. Clark, James Seweright, George Mowatt, Alex. Miller, Guy Ottoloni and John Miles. Dr. Joseph A. Wark contributed an enjoyable piano solo. Afterward a committee from Iroquois tribe served an excellent feast of corn and venison.

"Back home" was the motto which dominated the thoughts of a good many people yesterday. Thanksgiving, and incoming and outgoing trains gave one the opportunity for observing just how much significance is attached to the home-going significance of the New England holiday. "Back home" was stamped on suit cases, bags and trunks and it shone forth from the eyes of travelers alighting from early trains as well as those departing in the general exodus that always begins near the November holiday. Here in Barre probably there were enough out-of-town visitors to whom Barre means home to offset those who left the city for Thanksgiving, so that the equilibrium was measurably well preserved. An atmosphere, surcharged with the real sense, and sunny skies combined to make the day delightful for those who walked or motored. Business was at a standstill, and the old-fashioned doctrine which decrees that every fire-side is an altar and every table a feast on Thanksgiving day seemed to obtain most everywhere.

Freight scales of a capacity heavier than any other set of scales on the Central Vermont system, having the scales at New London, Conn., have been installed on the cement embankments which concrete workers have been building in the railroad yard just south of Blackwell street. Engineers employed on the job returned to their home in St. Albans yesterday and J. M. Morrison, superintendent of construction, who was here to inspect the work, accompanied them. The scales are capable of weighing accurately 150 tons, a capacity which the New London scales equals but does not exceed. They replace scales that would ordinarily weigh a load of 80 tons. The growing demand for an apparatus that would register the weight of heavily loaded granite cars caused the railroad to make a change.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Anderson and son, John Anderson, of Hill street went this morning to Georgia, where they attended the wedding of their son and daughter, Alexander Anderson, Jr., to Miss Alice Wood, which took place at 2 o'clock this afternoon, at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. C. W. Clark, pastor of the Georgia Congregational church, was the officiating clergyman and only near relatives of the bride and groom were present at the ceremony. Mr. Anderson is a well known Barre young man, who has been employed in Waterbury, St. Albans and Georgia for the past three years. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will make their home in Georgia. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, Sr., and son will make a visit of several days in Georgia and vicinity.
